

Energy Café

A Conversation with the Rutgers Energy Institute

Enjoy Coffee, Tea, Refreshments, and a light Breakfast while talking to energy leaders from across Rutgers University.

The Rutgers Energy Institute (REI) is pleased to be sponsoring a morning Café Hour for conversation on a broad range of energy related topics.

Students, faculty, and staff from a variety of disciplines will be attending and are welcome to join in. No reservation is required...

just come to learn and share ideas.

February 23, 2012

8:30am - 9:30am

How Smart is the Smart Grid?

Learn about the latest developments in improving the efficiency, importance, reliability, economics, and sustainability of electricity services.

PIRG Energy Service Corps

Learn about internships to help people save energy, save the environment and save money.

Location:

The Cove at the Rutgers
Busch Campus Center
604 Bartholomew Road
Piscataway, NJ

Sponsored by The Rutgers
Energy Institute

Join us on facebook

facebook.com/RutgersEnergyInstitute

facebook.com/RutgersEnergyInstitute

Please contact Beatrice Birrer for additional information: email: bea@marine.rutgers.edu phone: 848-932-3436

